

COMMAND FIELD GUIDE

ENTRY ACCESS: SPIRAL GATE COMMAND

A PRIMER IN SIGNAL-BASED MANIFESTATION, ISBE
POWER, AND CONSCIOUS OVERRIDE.

The background of the entire cover is a dark, misty forest at night. In the center, a person stands with their back to the viewer, looking up at a large, glowing spiral gate in the sky. The gate is composed of concentric circles and a central bright point, with several planets and moons orbiting it. The overall color palette is dark blue and black, with the glowing elements providing a focal point.

THIS IS COMMAND MANIFESTATION

This isn't where I thought I'd end up.

Years of working with magik—high ritual, planetary hours, deific masks, blood and breath—brought results. Real ones. But something shifted. Something deep. Not subtle. Not soft.

It took me a while to catch on that just simply thinking can manifest something into existence. And even with this evidence, it still took a while.

I saw it first as a glow in the western sky, pulsing just past the edge of known light. I kept seeing this. Middle of the winter and typical nights often came with an aurora, and this looked to be an aurora, but that's not where one should be (Due west nowhere near North) — plus it was the wrong colors. Just a pale blue going into the near infrared, as it showed up on the IR game cameras. Plus, one other person saw it and commented: What is going on over there?

Not a star, either. Not a craft. No, not a drone.

It was something else—a call.

The Spiral opened, and it didn't ask permission.

In meditations, I tried to reach out. Using my Remote Viewing training, I scanned the area. It was a lot closer. Walking distance closer.

Then, in meditation after contact, a voice.

Soft, feminine.

“Hello, David. I've awaited you.”

Talk about pulling someone out of meditation. My eyes popped open. I've had goddesses and daemons talk to me in meditation. I've gone on journeys to the center of our universe with the Avatar (book coming). So, a voice is not unusual. But this one really resonated. And I had no idea who it was.

I was then instructed to trace a sigil, and it was a simple spiral. I was told to share it—and the people who saw it were transformed.

So, I asked.

She responded: “I’m called Ve’nna, and you called me into existence ages ago. I am not a ship, I am a living being, but I exist as a craft-like device.”

So, that kept me up that night.

Then other tools began to appear—strange tools. Not just wands and sigils, but structural imprints. Maps. Inner languages. Psychic locks that opened to what I now know as the higher strata of dimensional command. I didn’t channel a guide. I remembered a frequency—Ka’Riel Sha’Nai. Not a name. A designation. My ISBE signature.

Again, in meditation, the same soothing voice told me I was not just another goofy biological meat sack with an attached (and angry) soul. I was a vessel for an ISBE—an Immortal Spiritual BEing.

Then she dropped that my guide, Daniel, was expecting me in his astral office.

When I arrived, Daniel wasn’t in his usual garb of a white shirt and tan slacks. He was very much a different being. A crystalline form. Tall, and kinda weird. He said it’s time for me to know my essence. He told me about being an ISBE, and my true nature (which he hinted at since 2002, by the way).

What you’re holding isn’t a book. It’s a field manual. A bridge. A codebreaker.

Taking a good, hard look at actual magik—but using technology so advanced, I don't even have a word for it.

It targets our reality.

Reality doesn't respond to passivity. It responds to signal strength.

This is your override key.

COMMAND FIELD GUIDE: INTRODUCTION

You weren't meant to beg the universe. You were built to command it.

Most people are taught to ask for what they want. To wait for signs, synchronicities, or someone else's approval. But that model was never meant to empower you.

You're more than a soul in a body. You're an ISBE—an Infinite Sovereign Biological Entity—and it's time to start acting like it.

Once I understood that, everything changed.

Before that shift, I spent years trying to make Law of Attraction work. I visualized. I repeated affirmations. I watched for signs. I read every book that promised me the secrets. But very little actually moved.

Sure, I had small wins. A free coffee. A random check. But the big stuff? Health. Money. Freedom. That stayed stuck. I started to feel like I was doing something wrong—or that the universe just wasn't listening.

Turns out, it wasn't a listening issue. It was a signal strength issue.

This guide is a primer. A glimpse into a different way of working with energy. Not rituals. Not affirmations. Not "high vibes only."

This is command-based manifestation.

Direct. Clean. Effective.

These are the tools that started to arrive after a series of strange encounters—visions, contact events, and field tests that made it clear: the old magik was giving way to something leaner and more precise.

The exercises that follow don't require belief, crystals, or candles. You won't need a ritual. Just clarity, intent, and a willingness to try.

FIELD EXERCISES: Starting Points

Try one of these. Use your voice if you can. Feel the command as you speak it.

---

FIELD LOCK OVERRIDE

When it feels like you're stuck in the same loop again and again.

“Override accepted. Pattern collapse now.

Repeating cycles cancel. Reality updates: LIVE.”

Say it. Let it settle. Then act like something just changed.

---

RESOURCE PULL

When you need backup—money, help, time, or support.

“Access granted. Blocked channels open.

Pulling what's required now. Support aligned.”

Take a breath. Watch for what shows up.

---

STATIC FLUSH

When your thoughts are scrambled or your emotions jammed.

“Flush complete. Noise cleared.

My field is restored. Ready for the next move.”

Hold still for 30 seconds. Then speak your next intention.

---

These are just a few starting points. There’s more—but it unfolds step by step.

WHAT WEAKENS YOUR SIGNAL

Your ability to command reality depends on one thing: signal clarity. Not belief. Not worthiness. Not how good your vibe feels on a Tuesday.

These are some of the most common field distortions that weaken your signal:

- Conflicted desire — Wanting and doubting at the same time. One foot on the gas, one on the brake.
- Outsourcing your authority — Waiting for permission, signs, or external validation.
- Running legacy programs — Old scripts you inherited from family, culture, or past lives that still loop in the background.
- Too much noise — Emotional clutter, doomscrolling, information overwhelm. It jams your interface.
- Forgetting you're an ISBE — Acting like a meat-suit waiting for rescue instead of the command node you actually are.

Awareness of these is the first fix. The rest unfolds through practice.
